ARTICLE 3. THE COUNCIL

Section 3.1 – Council Powers and Duties

The Council is established to fulfill the duties of a board of directors as required by Vermont law, including but not limited to, hiring management, establishing compensation, if any, for the Council, and assuring the mission of the Co-op is carried out. The Council shall represent the interests of the Co-op's Members and shall hire and supervise a general manager to execute its policies. The Council may adopt reasonable policies governing the Co-op's business and affairs, consistent with the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, and applicable law.

Section 3.2 - Eligibility

Council members must be Members of the Co-op.

Section 3.3 – Council Composition

Section 3.3 (a) - Number of Council Members

Section 3.3 (b) Council Member Terms of Office

The terms of office of Council members shall be three years and shall be staggered so that no fewer than three Council members are elected each year. Terms commence and expire upon conclusion of the Council election. No person may serve more than ten consecutive years.

Section 3. (c) - Staff Representative

Non-management employees of the Co-op may elect a Staff Representative to the Council, in addition to the nine elected Council Members. Section 3.4 (a) – Nominations

Co-op Members interested in running for the Council shall submit nominating petitions signed by at least nine Members of the Co-op to the Council Secretary or his or her designee by a date determined by the Council, at least six weeks before the Annual or Special Meeting at which they wish to appear on the ballot.

Section 3.4 (b) – Council Elections

Ordinary elections to the Council are described in Article 6.

If the Council receives a petition to hold an election in conjunction with a Special Meeting of the Members, and the petition is signed by a sufficient number of Members (see Section 6.2), the Council shall hold the election rather than appoint Members to the vacancies. The newly elected Council members will serve the remainder of the vacated terms.

Section 3.5 – Council Member Conflicts of Interest

Section 3.5 (a) – Disclosure and Definition

Section 3.5 (b) – Recusal

A Member who discloses a conflict of interest may recuse him- or herself. Recusal means he or she may participate in the matter's discussion, consistent with the rules for Members at Council meetings, as established by the Council, but may not vote on the matter.

Section 3.5 (c) – Non-recusal and Ordered Recusal

A Member who discloses a conflict of interest, or who another person identifies as having a conflict of interest, but believes that he or she is able to act fairly, objectively and in the Co-op's interest in spite of the conflict of interest shall, prior to participating in any Council or Co-op committee action on the matter, disclose to the Council or committee at a meeting on the matter under consideration, the nature of the potential conflict of interest, and why he or she believes that he or she is able to act in the matter fairly, objectively and in the Co-op's interest. Nevertheless, the Council may order that Member to recuse him- or herself from the matter by majority vote. In a vote on whether to order recusal of a Council Member, said Council Member shall abstain from the vote.

Section 3.6 – Removal of Council Members

Any member of the Council who fails to attend four duly noticed Council meetings within one year without notice to the President and just cause, as determined by the Council, shall be deemed to have resigned. A "meeting" of the Council means a gathering of a quorum of the members of the Council for the purpose of discussing or taking action on any matters concerning the Co-op. All meetings of the Council are open to the Members, and, at Council's discretion, to the general public. The Council may only hold an executive session (a portion of a meeting open only to Council and Council-invited guests) if it votes to do so to consider one or more of the topics in this Section. A motion to enter executive session shall indicate the nature of the business of the executive session, and no other matter may be considered in executive session. No formal or binding action may be taken in executive session, and all votes shall be taken in open session. Only the following topics may be considered in executive session, after making a specific finding in the motion that knowledge by Co-op Members could cause substantial harm to the Co-op or a person involved:

- (a) labor relations or personnel issues involving a Co-op employee, Member, or vendor;
- (b) complaints or actions against a Co-op employee, Member, or vendor;
- (c) negotiation of a contract, the disclosure of which would put the Co-op or a vendor at a competitive disadvantage;

- (e) discussion of a matter that may, by law or contract, be considered confidential;

- (g) that portion of the annual Council retreat that is devoted to the building of interpersonal relationships among members of the Council;

Section 7.4 (c) - Staff Representative and Employee Council Members

The Staff Representative and Council members who are employees of the Co-op may, at the discretion of the Council, be excluded from executive sessions in which personnel matters are considered.

ADMINISTRATION

ARTICLE 8. FISCAL MATTERS

Section 8.1 – Operating Year

The Council shall establish the fiscal year of the Co-op.

Section 8.2 – Indemnification

The Co-op shall indemnify and reimburse each former and current Council member and officer for any claim or liability (including expenses and attorneys' fees actually and reasonably incurred) to which such person may become subject by reason of being a Council member or officer, or by reason of his or her acts or omissions as a Council member or officer. Such indemnification shall be made only if it is determined by the Council that the Council member or officer acted in good faith in the reasonable belief that his or her action was in the best interests of the Co-op.

Section 8.3 – Patronage Refunds

Section 8.3 (a) - Allocations to Members

The Co-op shall allocate and distribute to Members the net profit from business done with them in such a manner as to qualify them as patronage refunds consistent with cooperative principles, applicable state and federal laws and generally accepted accounting principles. The Council shall determine when and how such allocations and distributions will be made.

Section 8.3 (b) - Consent of Members

By obtaining or retaining membership in the Co-op, each Member consents to take into account, in the manner and to the extent required by federal and state tax law, any patronage refund received from the Co-op. By obtaining and retaining membership in the Co-op, each Member agrees that if their patronage refund is not redeemed within 90 days of the date on which it was issued by the Co-op, the Co-op may make a contribution in the name of that Member to support the local food system in a manner as may be directed by the Council from time to time.

Section 8.3 (c) - Retained Amounts

Patronage refunds not currently distributed by cash, check or credit shall be credited or charged to capital accounts in the names of recipient Members. Retained patronage refund shall accrue no dividend or interest. Retained amounts that are no longer needed for capital purposes of the Co-op may be redeemed in such amounts and at such times as may be determined by the Council. At that time they shall be redeemed only in the order of the oldest outstanding amounts and only on a pro-rata basis among such amounts for each fiscal year, except that redemptions may be made payable only to current Members.

Section 8.3 (d) - Extraordinary Gains

Margins produced by a transaction (such as income from the lease of premises, investment in securities, or from the sale or exchange of capital assets) which is directly related to the Co-op's business will be deemed to be patronage-sourced margins and may be distributed to Members in proportion, insofar as is practicable, to their patronage during any period to which such margins are attributable, as determined by the Council.

Section 8.3 (e) - Allocation of Losses

Section 8.3 (e)(1) - Operating Losses

An operating loss will be apportioned among the Members during the year of loss so that the loss will, to the extent practicable, be borne by those Members with respect to the loss year on an equitable basis, including charging the loss against allocated reserves, unallocated surplus, or the patronage equity. Members may not be directly assessed for any loss. The Council may also direct that all or part of any loss be carried forward or back so long as any carryforward or carryback will not place an inequitable burden upon past or future Members.

Section 8.3 (e)(2) - Other Losses

If, in any fiscal year, the Co-op incurs a loss other than an operating loss, the Council may determine the basis on which patronage capital furnished by the Members may be reduced or such loss is to be otherwise equitably apportioned among the Members.

Section 8.4 Equity Payments and Return of Equity Payments

Section 8.4 (a) - Equity Payments

The receipt of a Member's equity payment will be credited in the financial records of the Co-op to an equity account in the name of each Member. A Member's equity account is not entitled to a return on investment and is not transferable. Patronage refunds are not returns on investment. Members' equity accounts are subordinated to all other debt or equity obligations of the Co-op.

Section 8.4 (b) - Return of Equity Payments

Whenever a membership has been terminated for any reason, the Member's equity payment may be returned, at the discretion of the Council, upon request of the Member. Subject to the Co-op's right of setoff for amounts otherwise due and payable to it, a Member's equity account shall be returned upon filing of a bankruptcy petition by or against a Member, or as ordered by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court. The equity account to be returned to any Member may be subject to a reasonable processing fee to be determined by the Council at return and is subject to setoff of any sum, however arising, which may be due and payable to the Co-op by that Member.

If a Member allows their membership to be suspended and does not request a return of equity within the following three years, the membership is terminated and the Member's equity balance will revert to the Co-op as non-allocated capital. For a period not to exceed one year following termination of membership and the return of that Member's equity payment account, the re-admission to membership of that former Member is conditional upon the contribution by that Member of the entire amount of the equity account paid by the Co-op at his or her termination, or such other reasonable conditions as may be imposed by the Co-op.
